

National Cheng Kung University Directions for Student Clubs Hiring and Subsidizing External Experts

Passed by the Student Club Review Committee Meeting on April 12, 2011
Amended by the Student Club Review Committee Meeting on December 10, 2012
Amended by the Student Club Review Committee Meeting on December 17, 2012
Amended by the Student Club Review Committee Meeting on May 5, 2014

1. National Cheng Kung University Directions for Student Clubs Hiring and Subsidizing External Experts (hereafter referred to as the Directions) are prescribed pursuant to Article 46 of National Cheng Kung University's Organizational Regulations.
2. The student clubs, as referred to in the Directions, are clubs that have been established through applications to the Office of Student Affairs pursuant to Article 46 of the National Cheng Kung University's Organizational Regulations.
3. External experts (or external instructors), as referred to in the Directions, are skilled persons not within the university's organizations who instruct student clubs.
4. Each club may apply for subsidies for external experts, with a limitation of one person per skill; the applications will be reviewed and adjudicated by the Student Club Review Committee Meeting.
5. Clubs applying for external experts must provide the individual's identification and documents proving the relevant academic background or experience for instructing the club and absence of a criminal history; additionally, the expert must not have any of the disqualifying conditions outlined in the Article 31 of the Act of Governing the Appointment of Educators.
6. The instructional fees for external experts for student clubs shall be subsidized in principle, and applications shall be submitted by mid-October every year. The subsidy amount shall be determined by the annual budget and number of applicants but shall not exceed NT$4000 each semester.

7. The Directions are passed in the Student Club Review Committee Meeting before implementation.
The same shall apply to any amendments to the directions.