

National Cheng Kung University Organization Regulations for the Student Association of Departments

Amended and passed by the Student Affairs Committee Meeting on June 11, 1996

Amended and passed by the Student Affairs Committee Meeting on December 21, 2000

Amended and passed by the Student Affairs Committee Meeting on May 14, 2004

Amended and passed by the Student Affairs Committee Meeting on May 30, 2008

- Article 1 National Cheng Kung University Organization Regulations for the Student Association of Departments (hereafter referred to as the Regulations) were promulgated in accordance with Article 45 of the NCKU Organizational Regulations.
- Article 2 Each department in the university must organize a student association that will organize student activities, improve the relationships between students, encourage academic achievement, and enhance the sense of identification of students with their department and the university.
- Article 3 Students enrolled in each department are members of the corresponding student association.
- Article 4 Each student association must have one president, who is in charge of the general affairs of the association; students who failed 50% or more of their subjects in the previous semester are not permitted to be a candidate for president. Various representatives must also be elected. The term of service for the president and representatives is one year.
- Each student association must assist in the election of student council members.
- Article 5 In accordance with administrative needs, each student association may establish different divisions such as academic affairs, activities, general affairs, promotion, and public relations.
- Article 6 The director of each department is the advisor of the corresponding student association. Other teachers in the department may be asked to take over this role if necessary.
- Article 7 The convocation and dates of meetings of each student association are subject to the regulations promulgated by each association.

Article 8 The collection and use of membership fees of each association are managed by each department.

Article 9 The organization regulations of each student association must be promulgated in accordance with the regulations, passed in the general assembly of all members, approved by the director of each department, and be deemed effective by the Office of Student Affairs. The same shall apply to any amendments to said regulations.

Article 7 The Regulations are passed in the Student Affairs Committee Meeting before implementation. The same shall apply to any amendments to the directions.